

Hospital Overview

The hospital handled 28K total patient visits, with peak traffic in the ambulatory encounter class.

The average length of stay was 7.23 hours, demonstrating efficient patient management.

The monthly visits trend revealed a spike in February signaling high-demand periods.

Patient Demographics

The majority of patients 73% were categorized as Elders (age group), indicating the primary demographic served while 9.25% of patients were returning, reflecting a strong patient retention rate and continuity of care

Financial Overview

The total claim costs amounted to 101.51M with 31% covered by payers and 69% attributed to co-pays. The highest-contributing payer class was Encounter Class ambulatory accounting for 45% of the total costs. Payment trends over the year revealed steady inflows, especially during month of February

Procedures & Outcomes

The highest-cost procedure Electrical cardioversion accounted for 34% of total expenses, with ambulatory leading in contributions at 45%

Seasonal trends indicated that February experienced increased demand for Movement therapy (regime/therapy) while the mortality rate stood at 15.81%

Regionally, Plymouth County recorded the highest procedure volume, primarily linked to Renal dialysis (procedure) cases, underscoring local healthcare needs

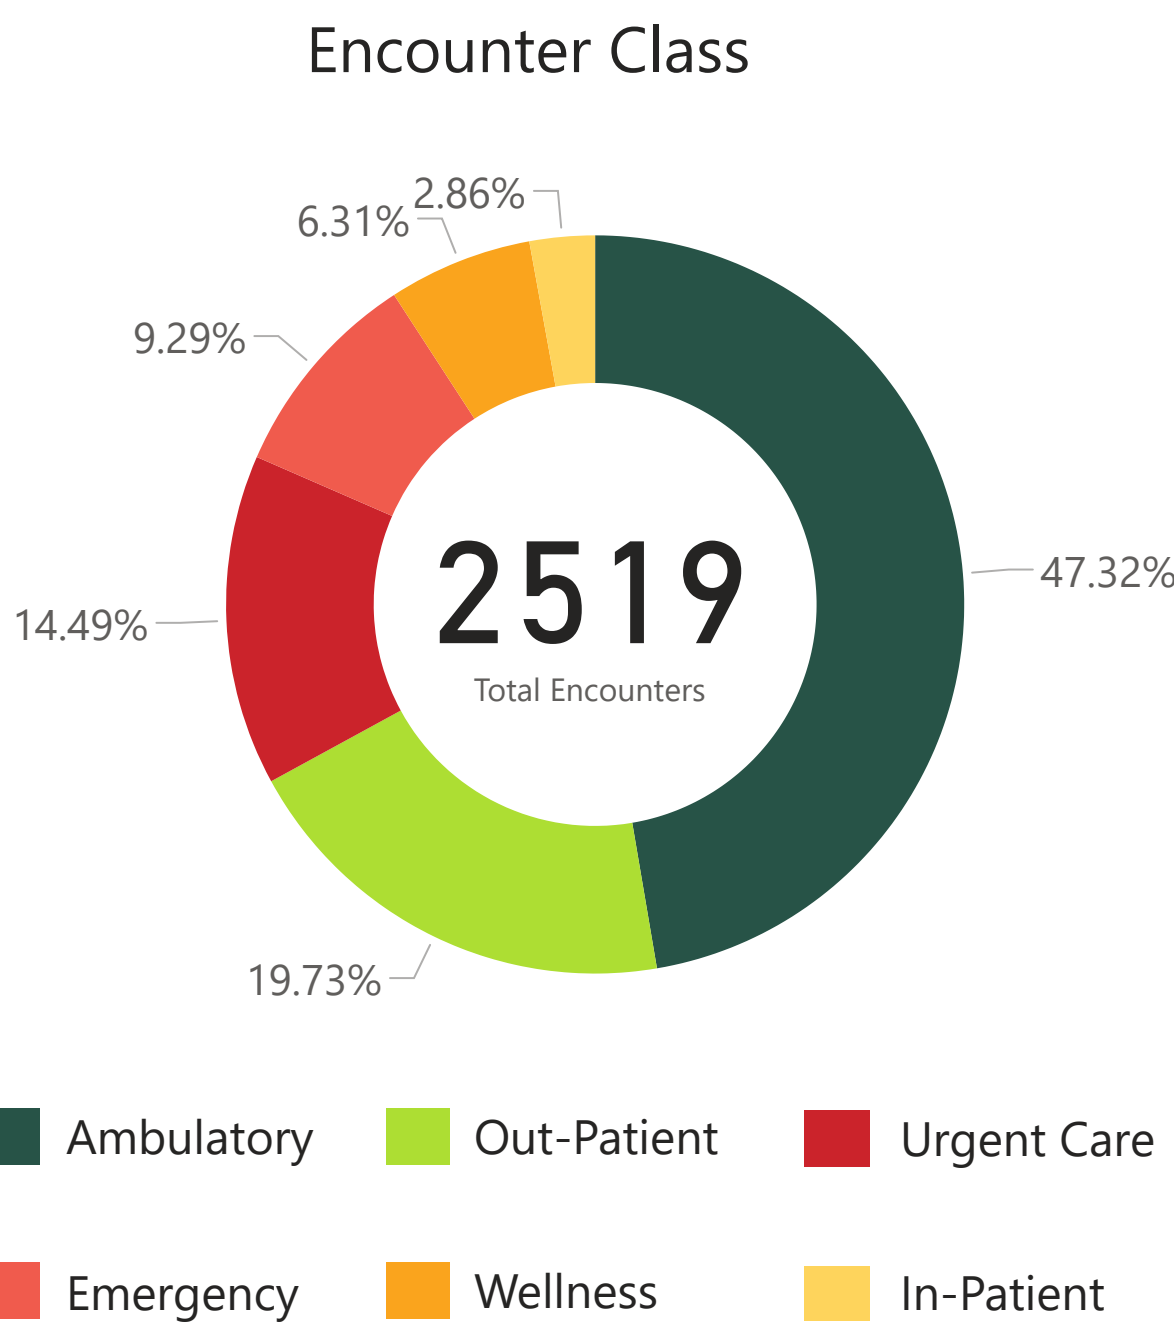

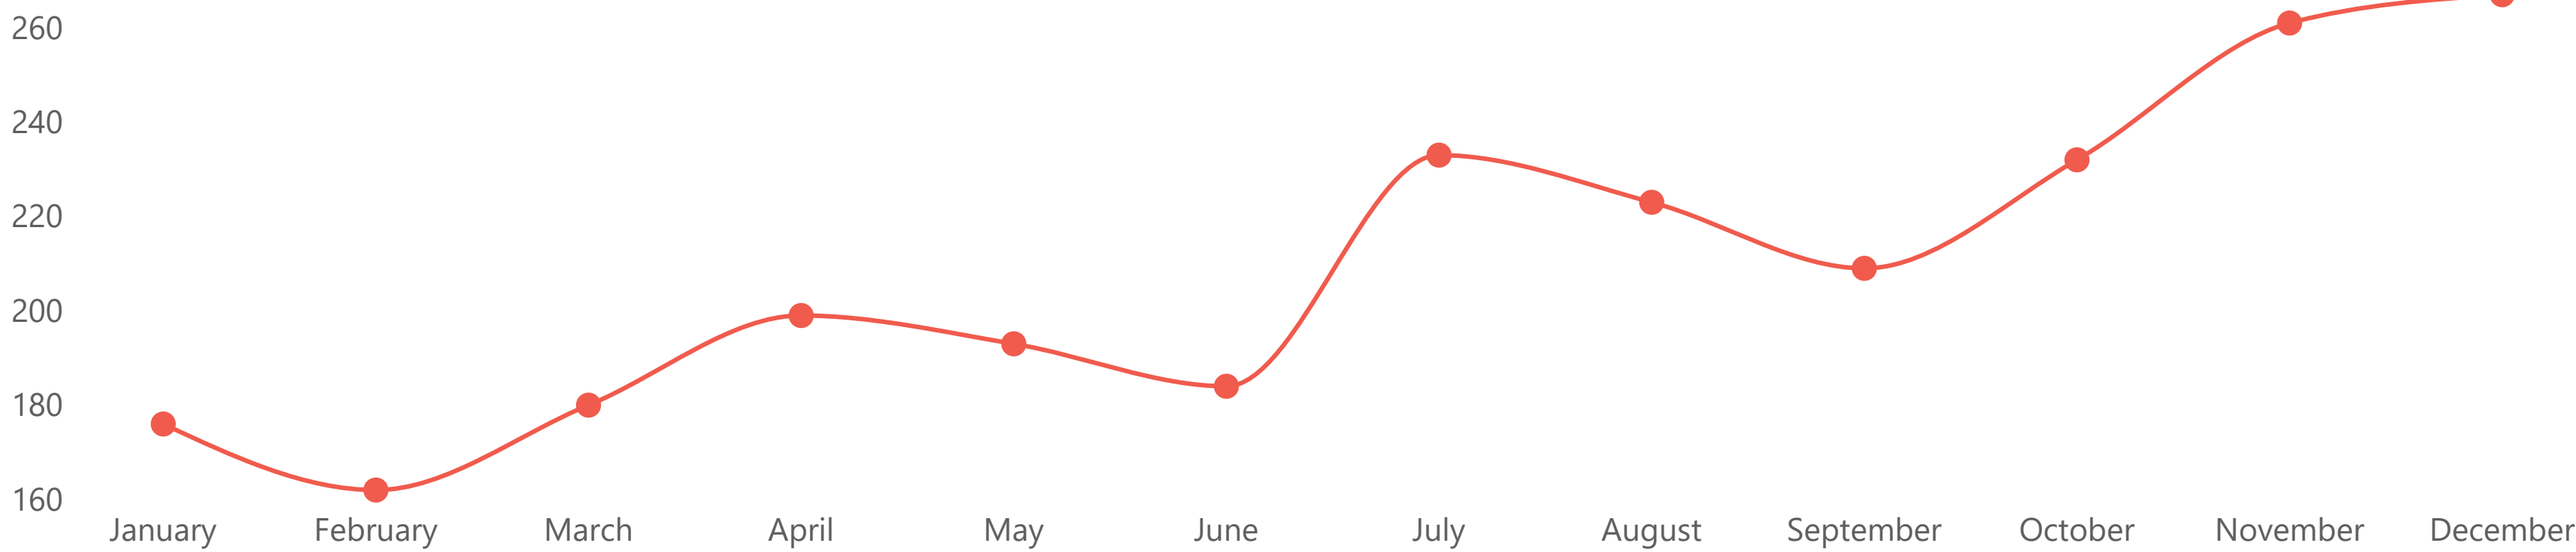

Hospital Overview

The hospital handled 2519 total patient visits, with peak traffic in the ambulatory encounter class.

The average length of stay was 2.61 hours, demonstrating efficient patient management.

The monthly visits trend revealed a spike in December signaling high-demand periods.

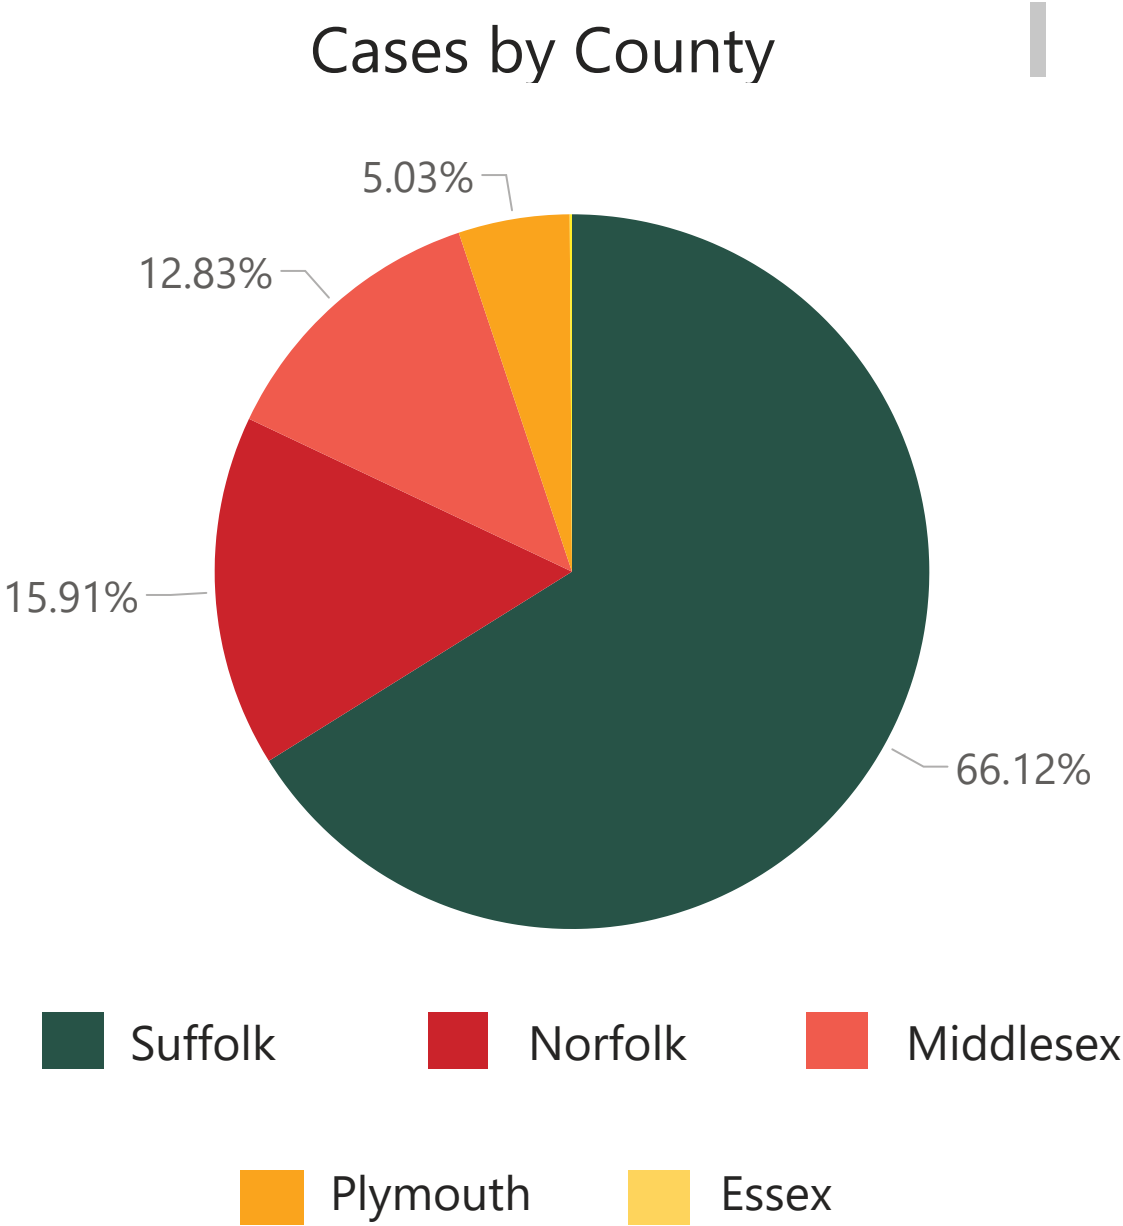

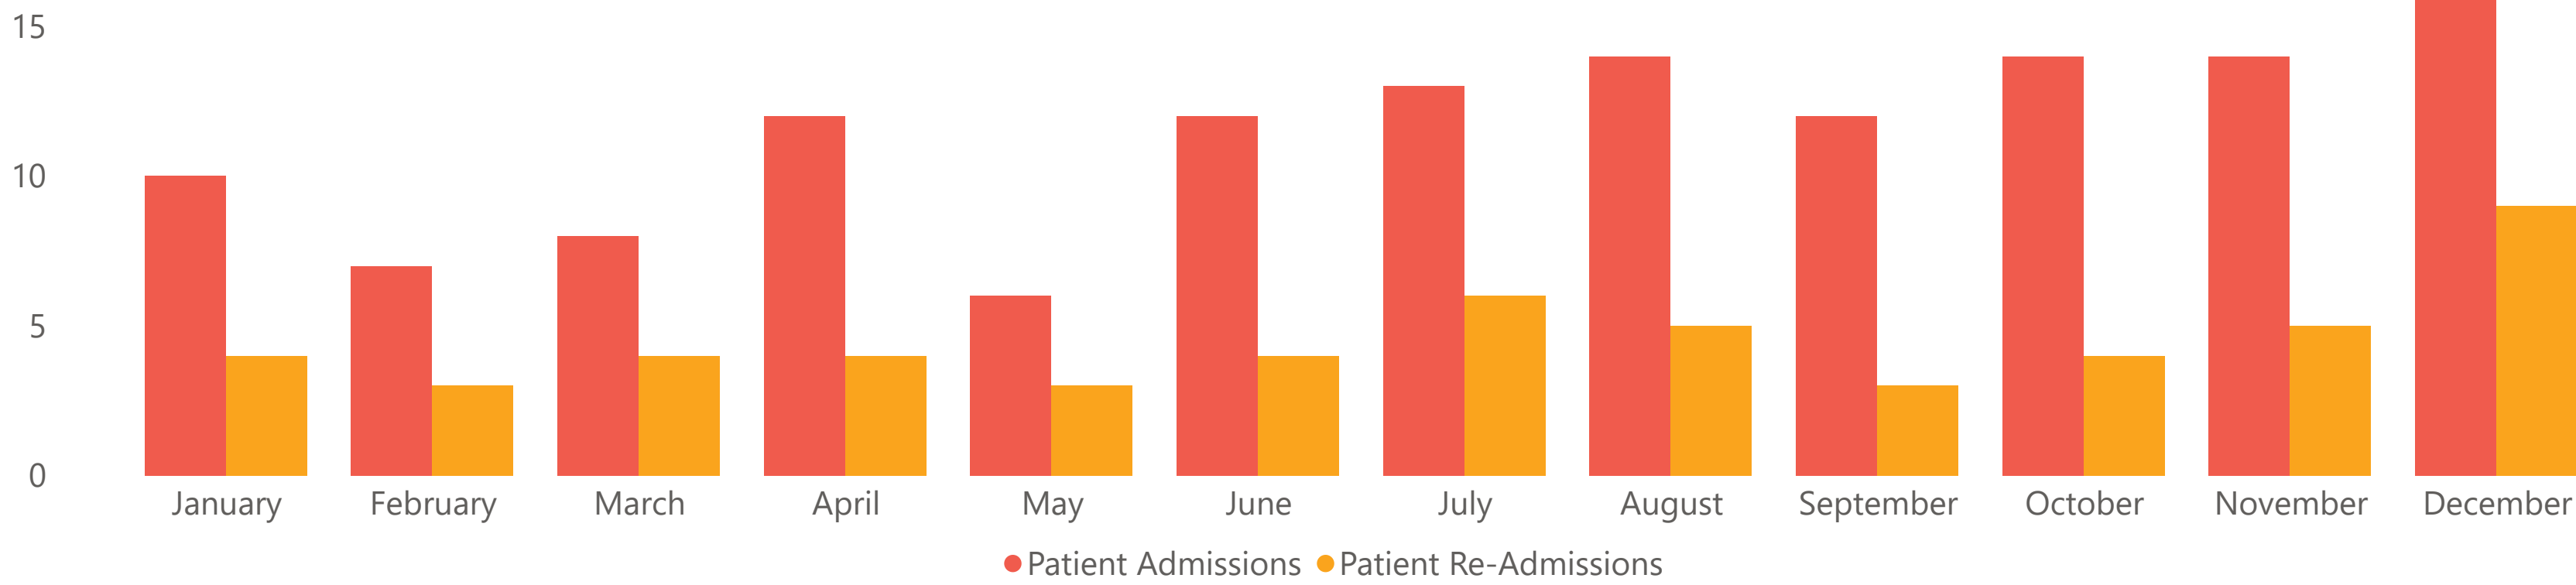

Total Encounters by Months

Patient Demographics

The majority of patients 78% were categorized as Elders (age group), indicating the primary demographic served while 18.12% of patients were returning, reflecting a strong patient retention rate and continuity of care

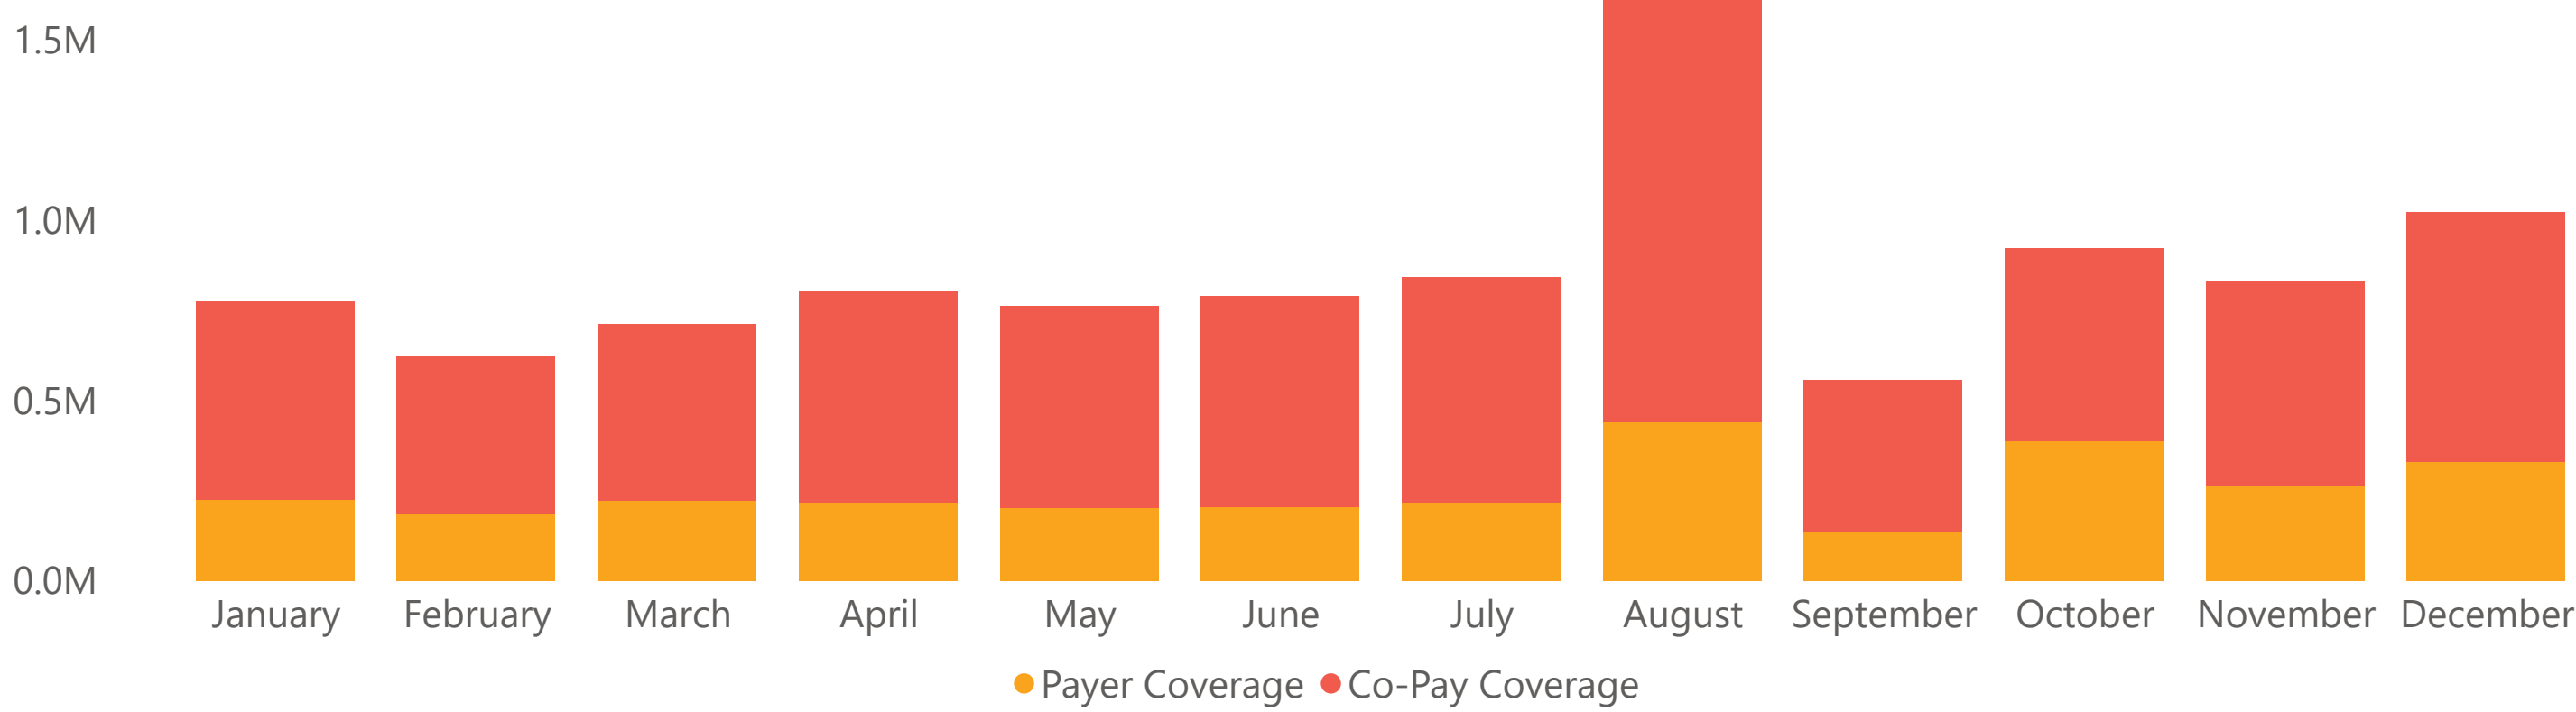

Patient Admissions and Patient Re-Admissions by Months

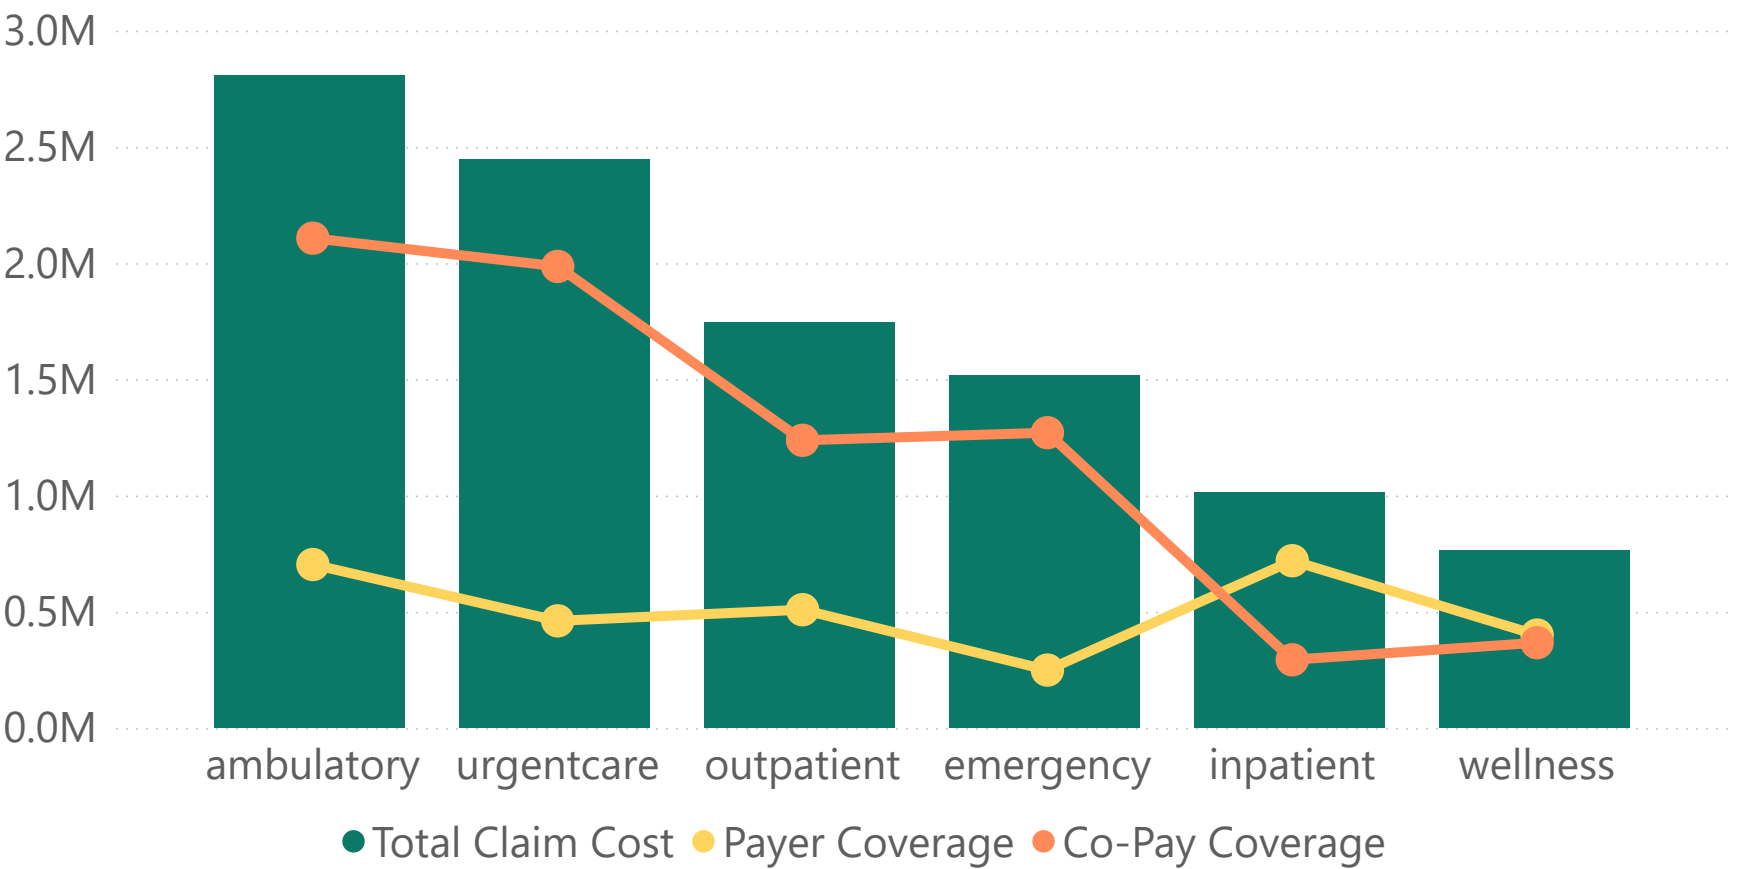

Financial Overview

The total claim costs amounted to 10.29M with 30% covered by payers and 70% attributed to co-pays. The highest-contributing payer class was Encounter Class ambulatory accounting for 47% of the total costs. Payment trends over the year revealed steady inflows, especially during month of Decemb...

Payer Coverage and Co-Pay Coverage by Months

Financial Pay - Source

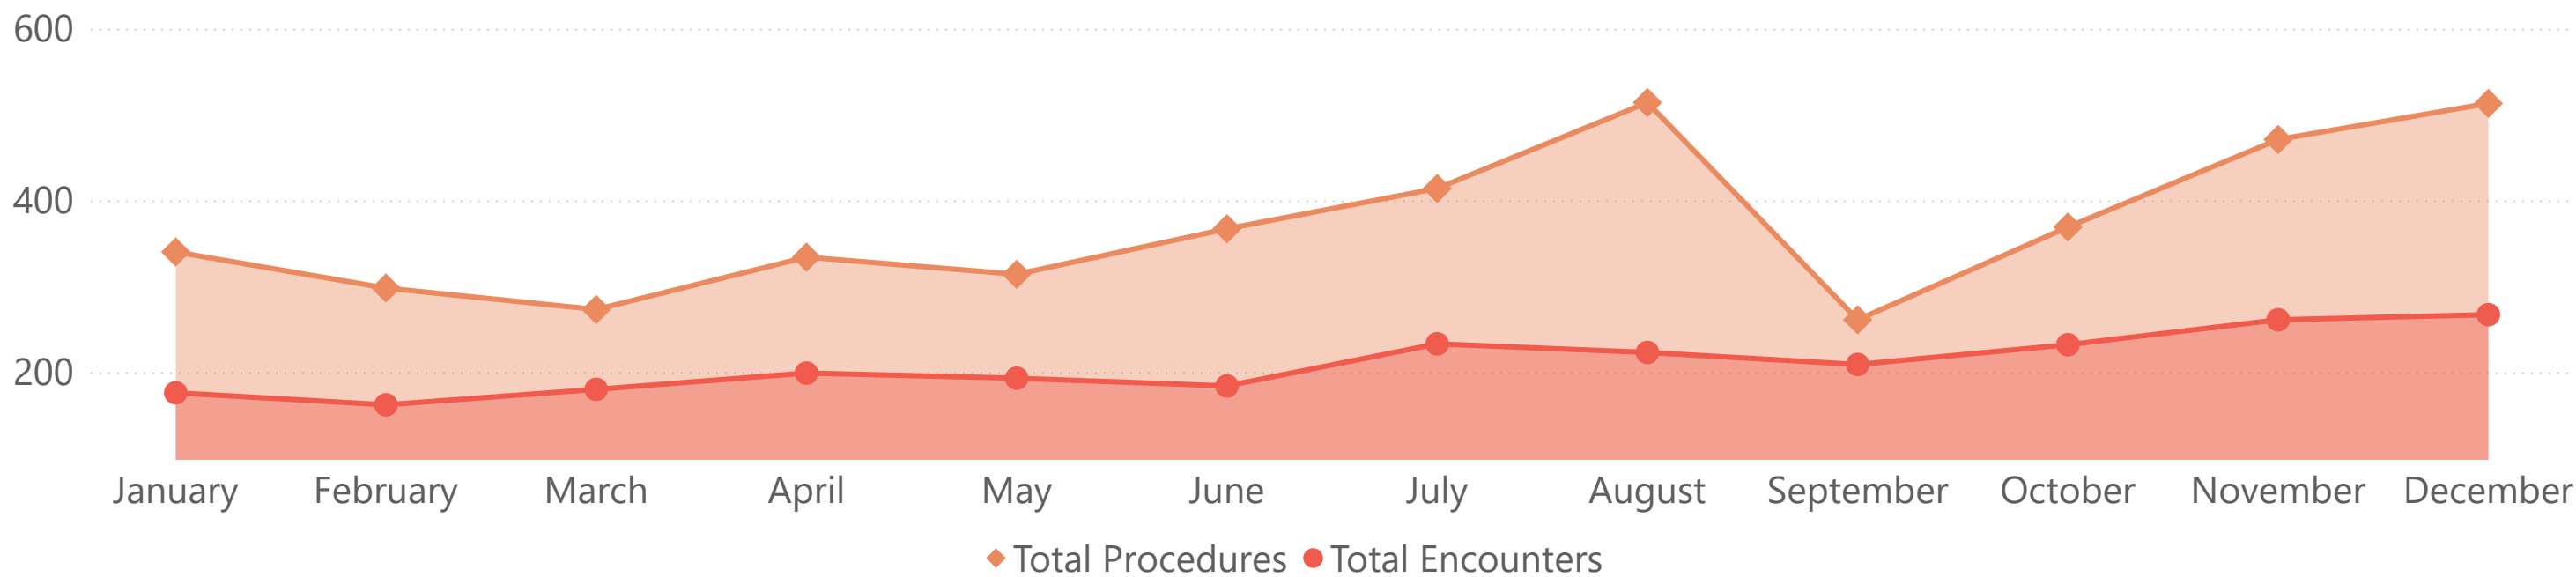

Procedures & Outcomes

The highest-cost procedure Electrical cardioversion accounted for 36% of total expenses, with ambulatory leading in contributions at 47%

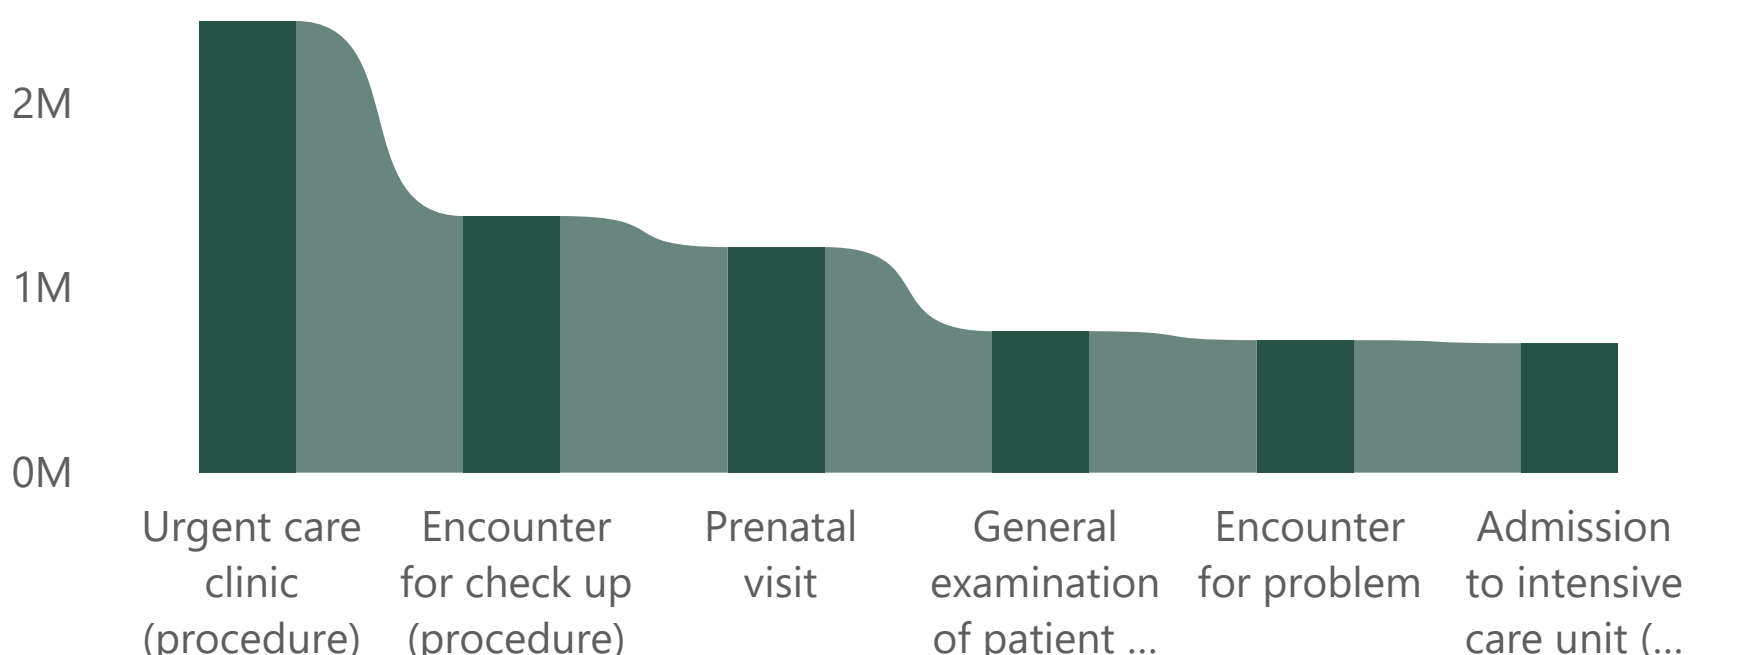

Seasonal trends indicated that December experienced increased demand for Hospice care (regime/therapy) while the mortality rate stood at 15.81%

Regionally, Norfolk County recorded the highest procedure volume, primarily linked to Renal dialysis (procedure) cases, underscoring local healthcare needs

Total Procedures and Total Encounters by Months

Total Claim Cost and Total Encounters by Procedures

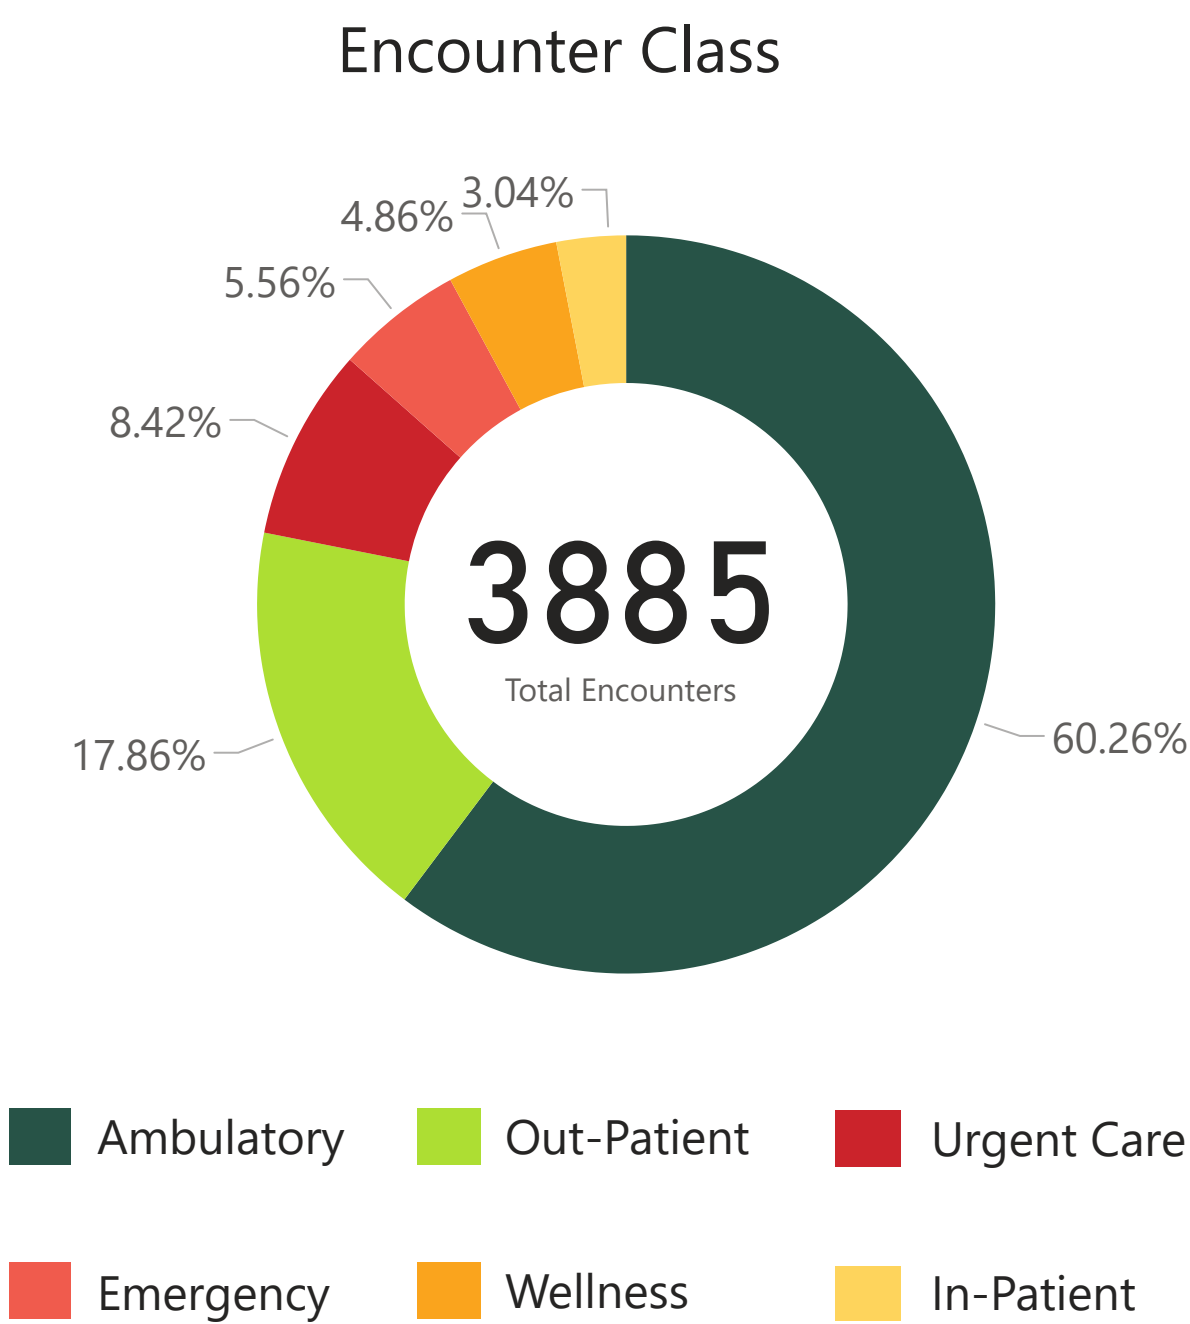

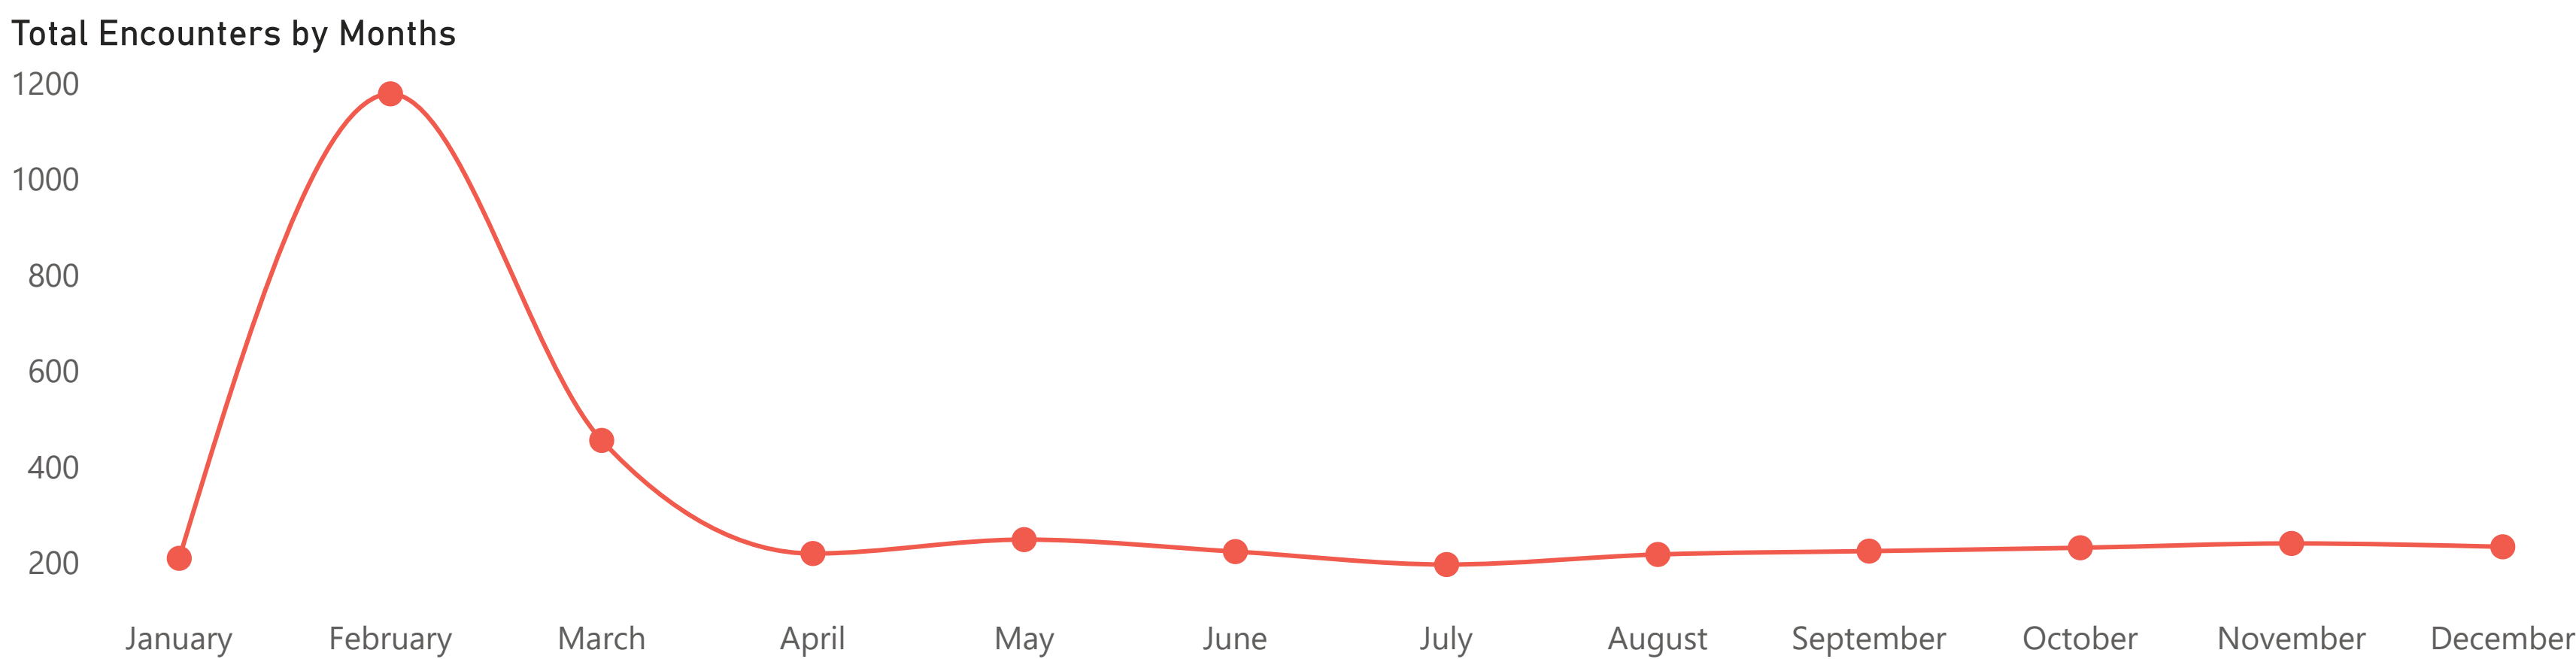

Hospital Overview

The hospital handled 3885 total patient visits, with peak traffic in the ambulatory encounter class.

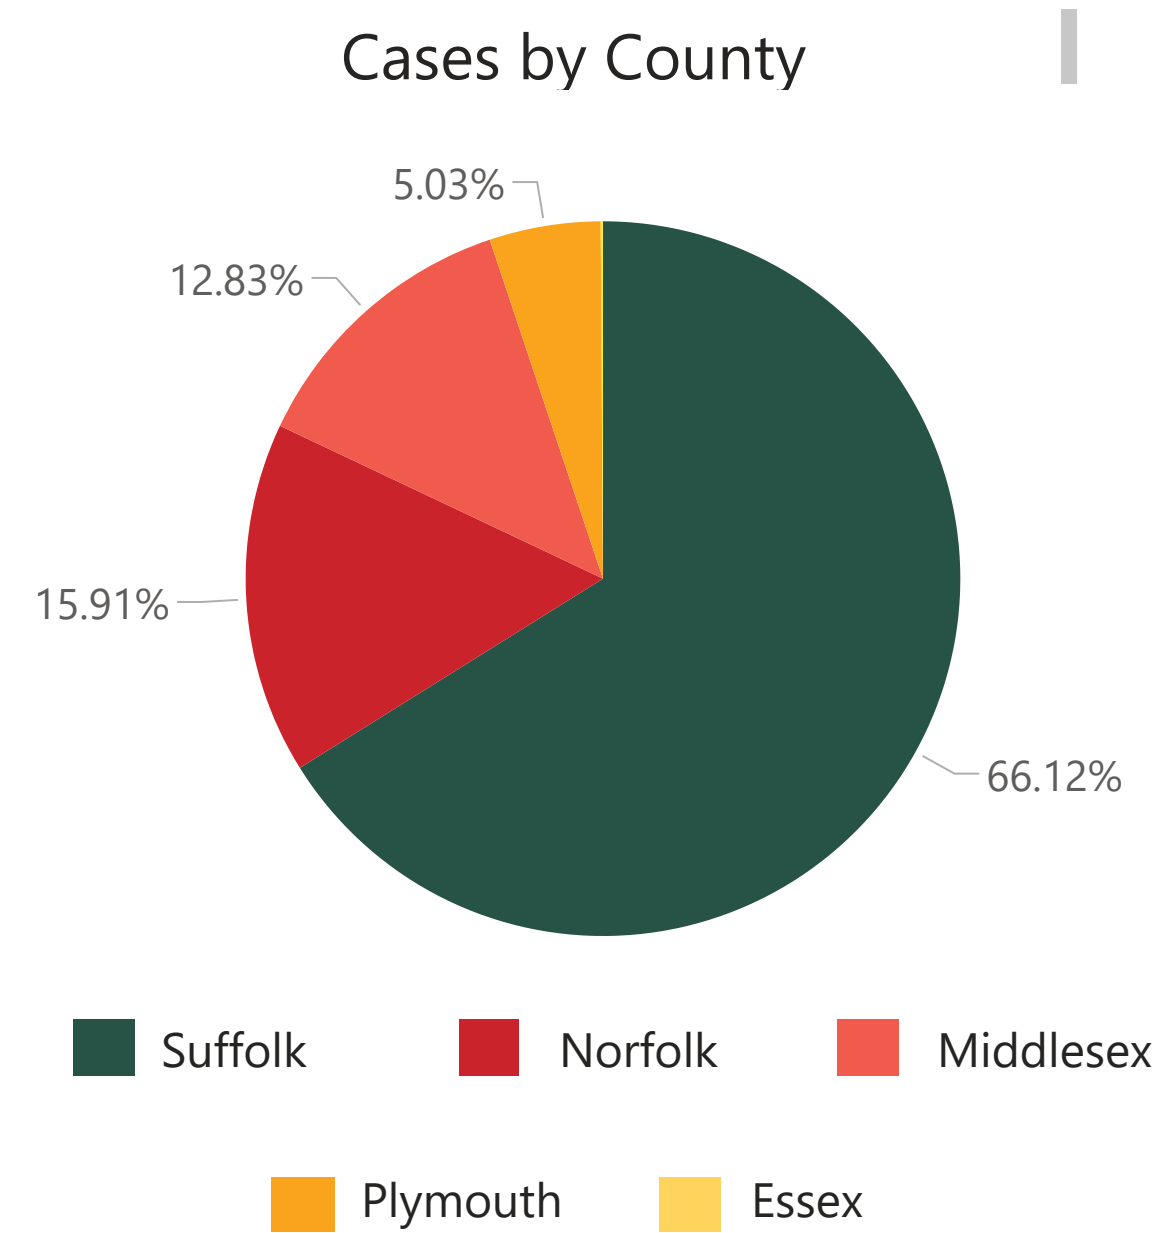

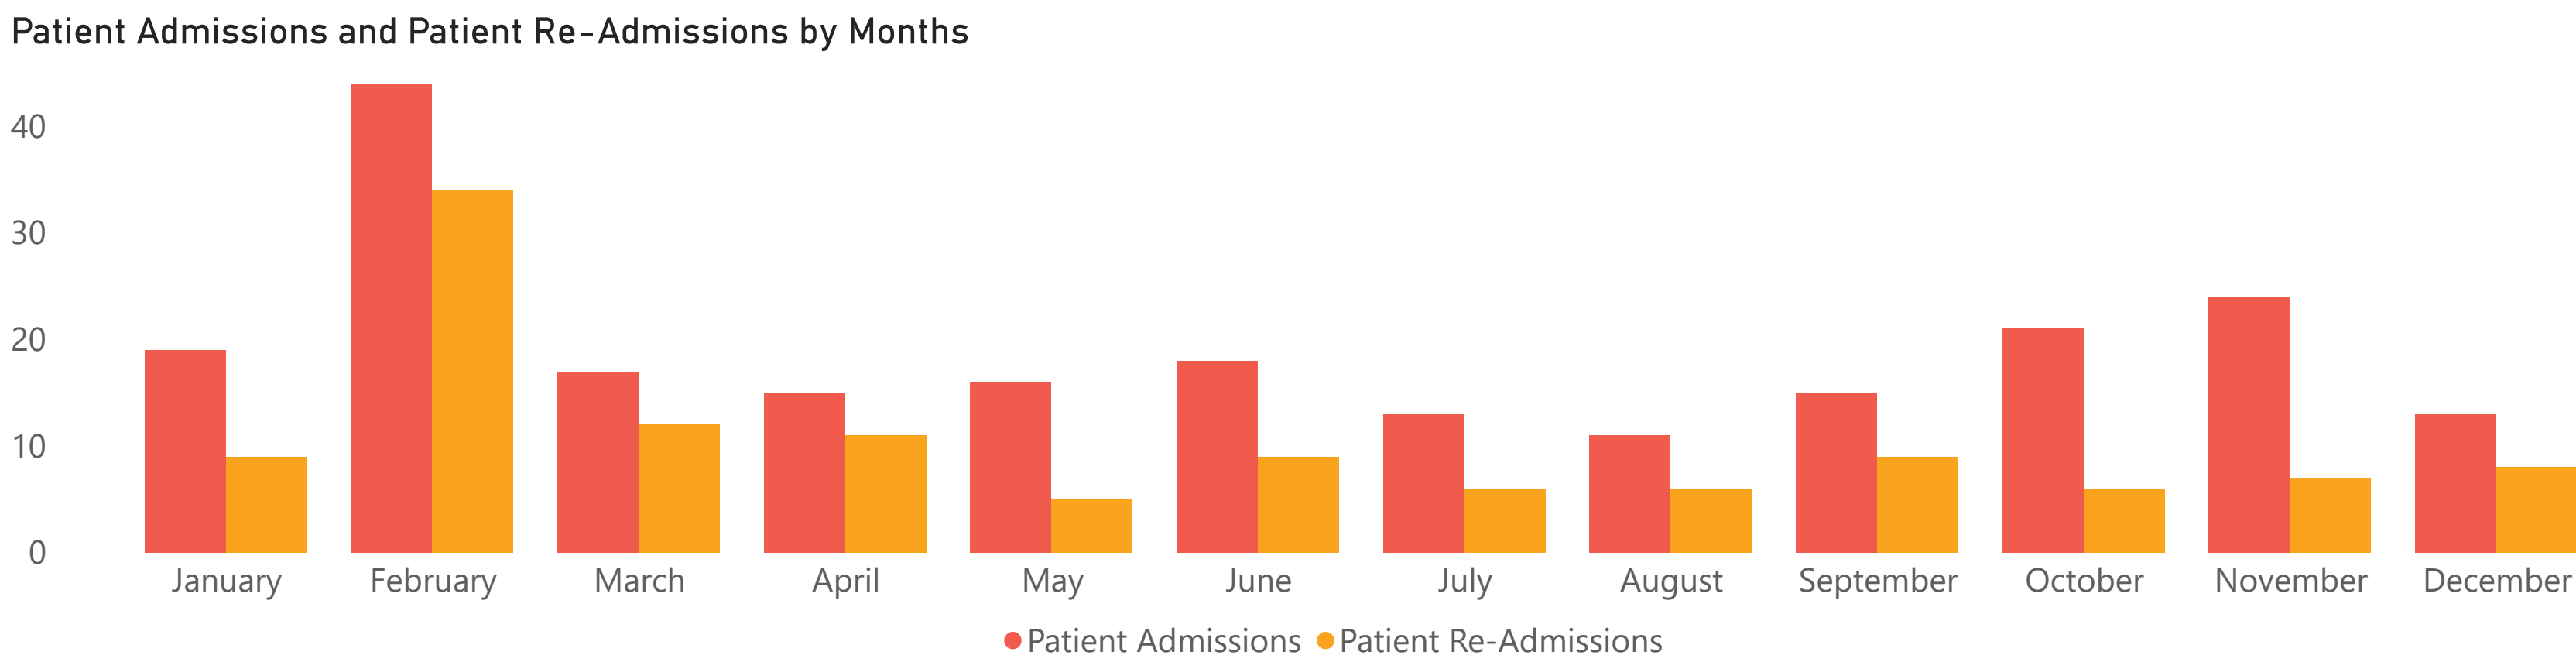

The average length of stay was 38.02 hours, demonstrating efficient patient management.

The monthly visits trend revealed a spike in February signaling high-demand periods.

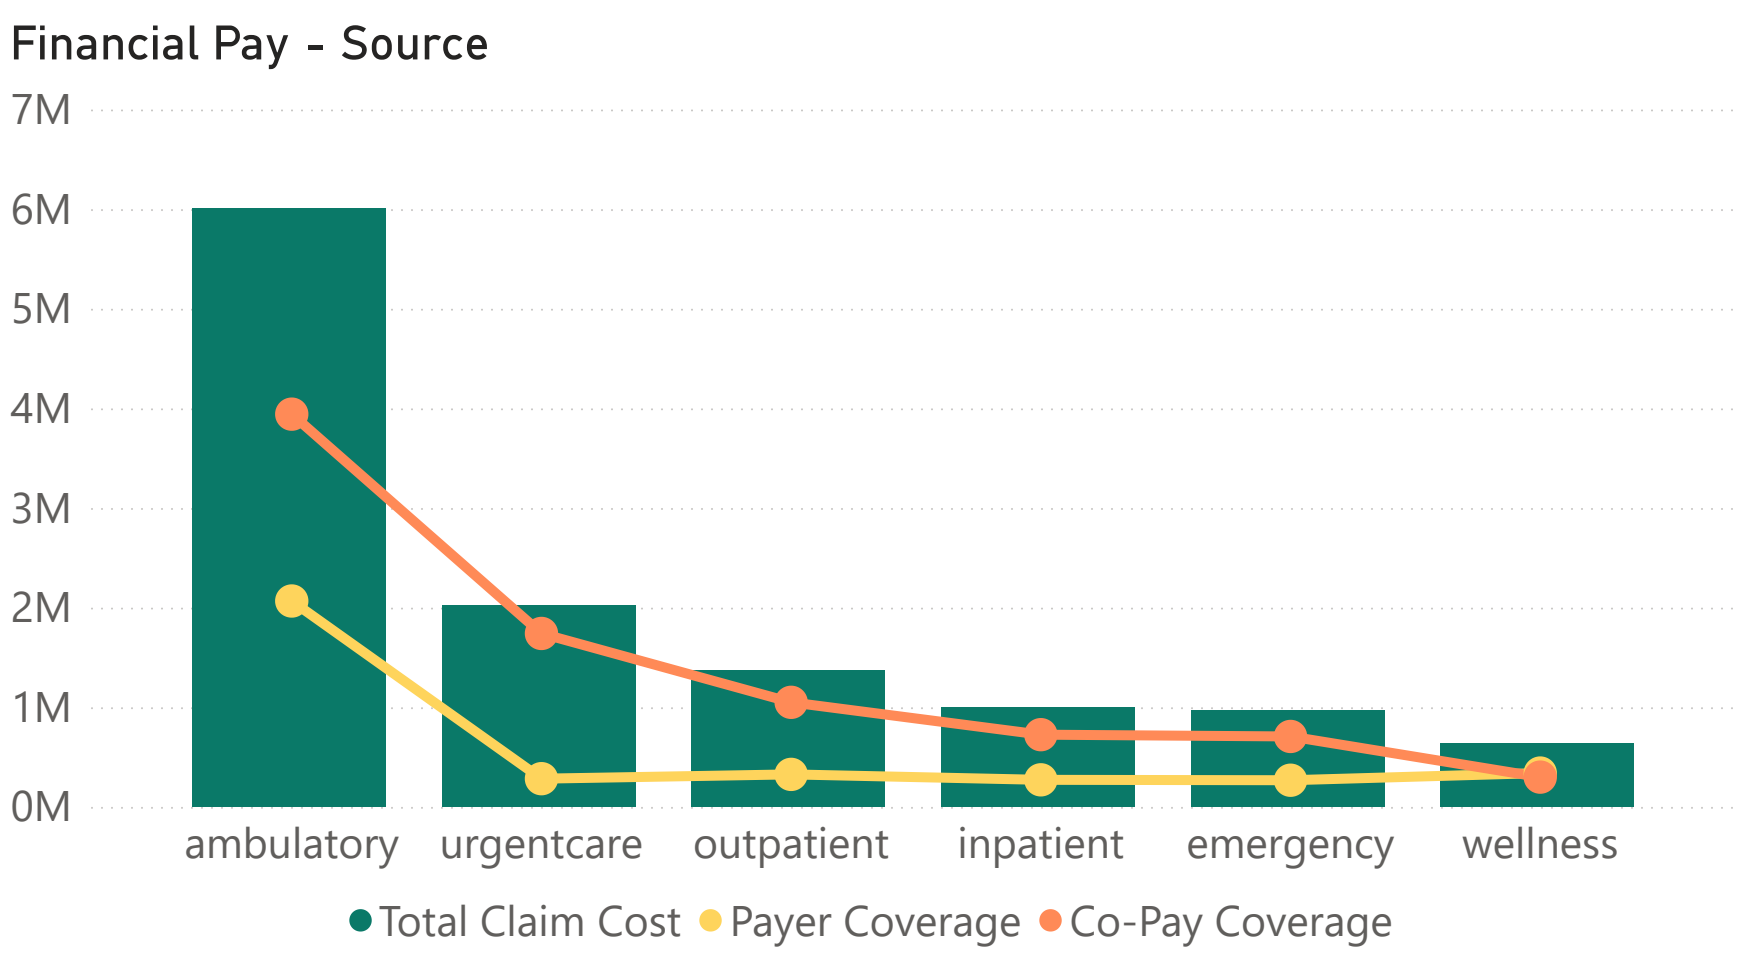

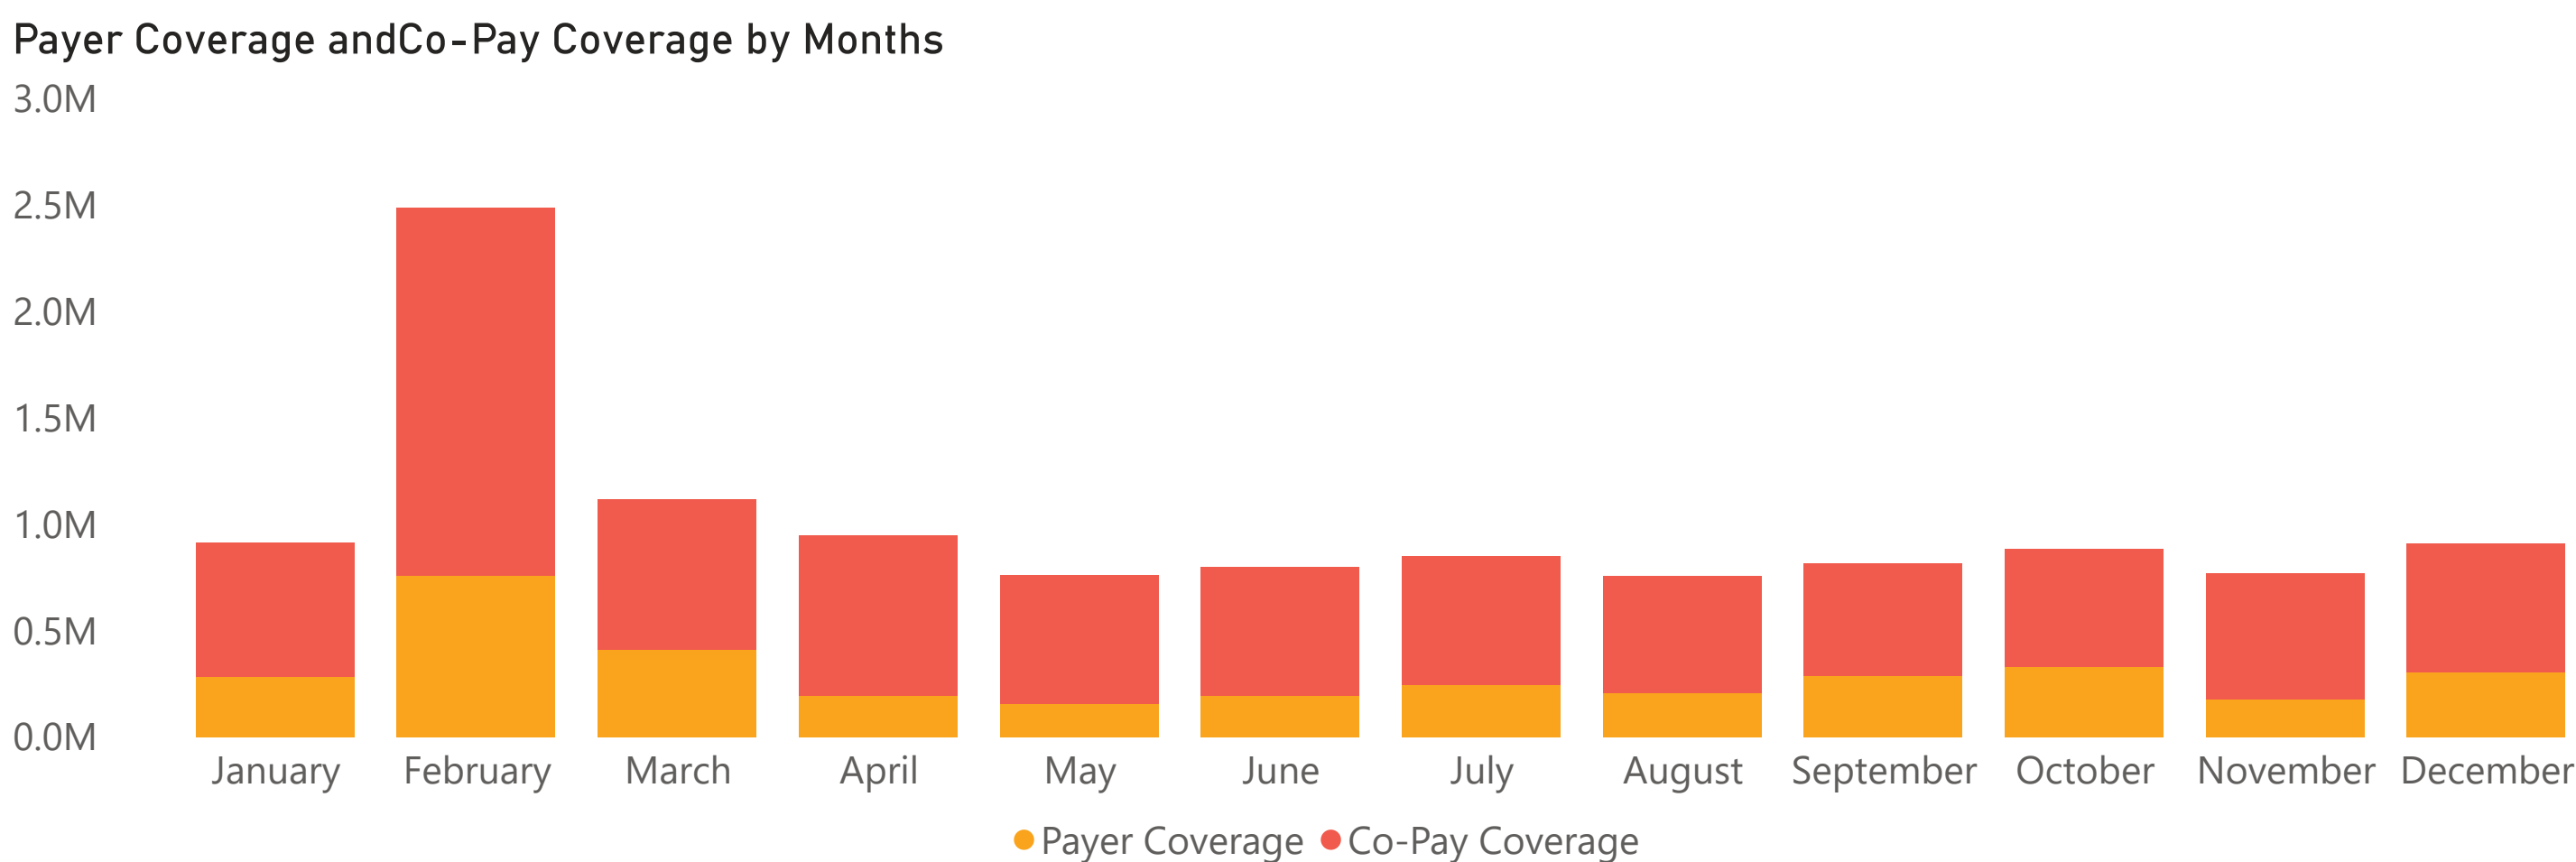

Patient Demographics

The majority of patients 65% were categorized as Elders (age group), indicating the primary demographic served while 30.09% of patients were returning, reflecting a strong patient retention rate and continuity of care

Financial Overview

The total claim costs amounted to 12.01M with 30% covered by payers and 70% attributed to co-pays. The highest-contributing payer class was Encounter Class ambulatory accounting for 60% of the total costs. Payment trends over the year revealed steady inflows, especially during month of February

Procedures & Outcomes

The highest-cost procedure Electrical cardioversion accounted for 24% of total expenses, with ambulatory leading in contributions at 60%

Seasonal trends indicated that February experienced increased demand for Movement therapy (regime/therapy) while the mortality rate stood at 15.81%

Regionally, Suffolk County recorded the highest procedure volume, primarily linked to Renal dialysis (procedure) cases, underscoring local healthcare needs

